FROM THE JOE ZONE

-JOE KILIAN-

INSIDE THIS ISSUE:

From the Joe Zone.....

Gentlemen: As you look over the 2012 Worlds entry forms you will see a new price rate for early entry. The first 5 entries are $15 a piece. Any entry after that is $10 per entry in addition to that....we will be giving every driver a FREE EVENT T SHIRT. That is right a free T!. Additional T shirts will be the normal 1$10 a piece. The directors have been trying to come up with a better entry program and we think we have found something ...discounted entries and a t shirt to boot. We sincerely hope this new program will strengthen numbers at this year's event. Everybody knows that the following weekend is iHobby and we would hope if you have to pick between the 2 events you will pick the association's 2012 WORLD CHAMPIONSHIPS. IF you still have some bread left please try and make

The iHobby pull in Cleveland Ohio's IX center. The entry there will be $10 per vehicle we will be handing out SPRINGS sized awards at this event and we need an entry fee to do that. Thursday and Friday have been typically demonstration runs with only electric vehicles running. The salesmen are there to make deals and were distracted and drowned out with the nitros and chainsaws and they have been banned for those two days. The event will be Saturday and Sunday like a regular pull. The hours of competition have typically been from around 11:00 until 5:00 so we plan on 2 rounds on day 1 one and the rest on day 2. The call here goes out to all chainsaw and nitro pullers we plan to make a lot of noise those days and THAT IS HOW YOU DO IT! The fuel classes always draw a crowd. We will have a better idea on all of this with the credentials and parking in few weeks. Ex NR/CTPA director and real monster truck driver Bari Mussiwir has found the room deals for iHobby they are near the back of this issue you can either stay with someone or in one of these rooms or find a campgrounds I guess...anyways thanks Bari.

There are also several events running up to the fall schedule

The STPA will be really busy all summer with a couple events in July and August. The Ashland antique tractor pull in Ashland Ohio and the granddaddy of them all that Bowling Green Championships in August. My club has an event in Murrey NY at the tractor pull grounds there it is combined with a full scale pull on July 28. Do not forget the Pullers of Central NY will be having the 11th Annual Grand Nationals.; They will be at the Crank It Up Antique Tractor Show September 15 2012 at the Oswego County Fairgrounds in Sandy Creek NY. One more if you want to drive about 30 miles east of Toronto Canada to the Orono Fair on September 8th . They will also have a pull with free admission to the fair and a full sized Canadian tractor pull after that....Do not miss the pooteen there it is French fries with gravy and cheese curds melted on top. I know, I sounded gross to me too until you start eating this stuff it is outstanding. I am getting hungry just writing about it. .It is also time to start thinking of sponsorships for classes for the WORLDS...if you want to contact Chris Bercau he handles that.

Anyways...see ya when I do

Looking back at this year's Spring Fund Raiser it was definitely a memorable one. I'm sure everyone's seen the videos of Jake Haulman's Super Stock Tractor winning the Friday nights drag racing competition. Let me tell you it was a site to behold, watching in person, a tractor barrel roll after the finish line. I know because I was in the lane next to him with my 2WD Pro Mod finishing 2nd. After some late night wrenching Jake also took the Super Stock tractor class with the same tractor. I'm pretty sure Jake has a little something up his sleeve, so all you drag racing guys better come prepared for the Worlds.

The STPA will be pulling at the 2nd annual DeLynn Kale Memorial pull in Richwood Ohio on July 7th. This is a great pull with great full scale action. We will also be pulling at the Ashland Co. Yesteryear Machinery Show in Ashland, Ohio on July 14th & 15th this is another great show and in the past it has been graced by The Joe Show so it has to be one of the highlights of the year.

Have a safe and wonderful summer.

12 3rd annual Mile High R/C pulling Championship Recap

A reprint from RCMT:

The 2012 Southwestern R/c Mile High Pulling Championships saw some good competition and some domination in a couple classes. The event was held at May Farms in Byers Colorado and saw 40 truck and tractors in 6 different classes. In the Super stock 4wd class What the Cat Dragged in, out of Tenn., dominated the field. Won both sessions' and took home the Championship hardware. In Session 1 of the Modified 4wd class we saw five trucks take it out the back door reaching that 30 foot mark. Within those five truck tow were able to duplicate that mark once again. But it was Runnin with the Devil being called the winner because Armageddon could not make the call for the seconded pull off. In Session 2 Peace Keeper won the round with a distance of 28 and a half feet. But the championship would have to come down to a pull off because two trucks were tied after the two session event. In the Championship pull off Peace Keeper was the one to win and take the championship. In the modified tractor class we saw the same action as we did in the 4wd class. Four of the five tractors in that class made the pull off with Skeeter time winning the session. In session two on two tractors pulled it the 30' to have a pull off, and this time around in was a new tractor called insufficient funds that won the session. But there would be a pull off to determine the winner of the class. That came down to Mission Impossible and Skeeter time, with Skeeter time taking the over all championship. In the 2wd mod class the first session saw 7 of the 9 trucks in that class pull it the full distance. Session was won by Spoiler, who also won the seconded session and the championships with a dominating performance. But that was not the only one to dominate a class. Les Boyles Outlaw showed he had more than enough power in the truck from Tenn.. Every time that truck hooked to the sled it took it out the back door. This is the first time in SWR/CTTPA and 5280 history that a truck was able to do this. Needless to say Outlaw was on bad  truck to win the Super Modified 2wd class. The Pro Stock tractor class saw German Six Shooter win the championship again and in the Super Stock tractor class Six Shooter won the championship. For the full list of results check out our Facebook Page at www.facebook.com/SouthwesternRcPulling

SWR/CTTPA and 5280 R/C Pulling Club would like to thank all of our Sponsors and supporters for helping to make this event a great event. Next Big event will be the October Feat pull. For info contact SWR/CTTPA at swr/cttpa@yahoo.com

Central Ohio Update

A big thanks to everybody that helped make the Springs a great time. I got there too late for the Friday night drag racing, but saw it on the Joe show and I think it looked like a lot of fun. Hope we can continue and maybe expand that cause it was just plain COOL. Congrats to all the winners on the pulling and racing side.

On the local front the STPA just wrapped up an event at the Hooters in Hilliard OH on the West side of Columbus on June 9. The track was set up right on the parking lot just in front of the place. We had "more attractive" sled return folks than usual, plus some great food, T shirts, and trophies! And the trophy presentation was, well... all I can say is you had to be there. Thanks Dave Corbett for setting this one up. Hope we can do it again next year.

The STPA's next event will be on July 7 at the Richwood OH fairgrounds in association with the Delynn Kale Memorial pull (full scale OSTPA event). From there, the STPA will pull at Ashland, OH at the Yesteryear Machinery show July 14 and 15. Then it is on to Brandenburg, Ky where our Kentucky friends put on a great pull (1/10th and Full scale). Don't forget to put Bowling Green, OH on your To Do list Aug 17 and 18 if you want to be part of the biggest, and in my opinion, best outdoor pulling event in the country - THE National Tractor Pulling Championships. Join us if you can.

Lots of pulling events coming up so get your stuff ready and hit the road.

THANK YOU BARI MUSIWWIR for finding some rooms for iHobby weekend!

Hey guys we have a list of hotels for you. We have picked a host hotel for the event and reserved a block of rooms. Here is the info...

Best Western Hotel 16501 Snow Road Brook Park, Ohio 44142 216.267.9364 $69.99 a night +tax.

The hotel is within minutes of the iHobby event. There is a family restaurant next door which we tried out as well. Good news food was great! Here is there website <http://goodysfamilyrestaurant.com/> There are also several stores and restaurants in the area as well.

There is a small pool and hot tub here as well as a continental breakfast. Being this is the host hotel we also able to use the breakfast room as our satellite registration area Friday. We will provide a time for registration, the closer we get to the event. One more note is there is a free shuttle to the convention center. When you call to reserve your room be sure to mention that you are with the High Voltage Rc event. Here is a link to the hotel website... http://bestwesternohio.com/hotels/be...inn-and-suites

The Hotels listed below are across the street from the restaurant and Best Western Hotel

Howard Johnson 16644 Snow Road Brook Park, Ohio 44142 216.676.5200

Older rooms $49 + tax New rooms $63 + tax

This is a very basic hotel. We were told some of the older rooms are not in too good of shape, so if you choose to stay here it would be best to request a newer remodeled room.

Holiday Inn Express 16330 Snow Road Brook Park, Ohio 44142 216.433.0004 Regular rooms $99 plus tax.

Nice hotel but they have very little availability for the iHobby weekend. iHobby has also listed some hotels as well on their website. Here's the link.... <http://www.ihobbyexpo.com/Hotel.htm>
